

THE BLAINE WORKERS.

Hansbrough, of North Dakota, thinks Blaine will get there.

CHICAGO, June 1.—Emmons Blaine, apparently, does not know how his father stands regarding the presidential nomination. The son of the secretary of state is at the Grand Pacific Hotel today in conference with Messrs. Clark, Conger and others. In an interview afterward he declared he knew nothing regarding his father's intentions, though admitting that the secretary's silence seems to mean a good deal. Mr. Clarkson declined to see reporters. He was in receipt of dispatches by the dozen. Senator H. C. Hansbrough, of North Dakota, came in from Washington, captured a big handful of telegrams at the hotel counter and at once went to Mr. Clarkson's room. Mr. Hansbrough's correspondents wired him that of the six unselected delegates from North Dakota, five had announced themselves for Blaine and the single Harrison man, Gerard Pierce, son of ex-Senator Pierce, was bound to Harrison only through his father's efforts. The instructed delegation from South Dakota, had swung around for Blaine, but two of the eight delegates having said they would vote for Harrison.

"I believe Blaine will be nominated on the first ballot," said Senator Hansbrough. "My ticket is Blaine and Blask, and the name of the Wisconsin man for vice president is on every lip at Washington. He would capture the farmers vote. Blaine and Rusk would carry every state west of the Mississippi and also Tennessee and Louisiana. The young men of Louisiana have gone over to Blaine by thousands on account of the mastery way he handled the Italian incident. New York will go 50,000 majority for Blaine, the action of the Cleveland men at their 'kick' convention yesterday having shown that the fight in the Democratic ranks there will last until after election day."

James F. Burke, President of the College League of Republican clubs, before leaving for Minneapolis this afternoon, said nine to ten of the Republican students in the great colleges of the country are for Blaine. Mr. Burke and the executive committee of the league will open headquarters at Minneapolis and work to the last minute for the Maine man.

WATERSON'S WAIL.

Displeased with him, He Condemns the Syracuse Convention.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., June 1.—Henry Waterson, in an editorial headed "Ugly Work at Syracuse," says in today's Courier Journal:

"Those Democrats who doubt the wisdom of going to New York for a Democratic nominee for president could find no better vindication of their opinion than is furnished by the proceedings of the convention held at Syracuse yesterday, by the protesting and contending Democrats of the Empire state. These show for themselves, and need no interpreter or commentator. They disclose and emphasize all the old familiar elements of party disruption and discord; the claim of the one faction that it, and it alone, is true blue, and that its adversary is the embodiment of all that is wicked and detestable; the gauntlet thrown down by the party of the second part to the party of the first part, with defiance and every preparation launched for a fight of reprisal and revenge, war to the knife and the knife to the hilt."

"Thus the brand of internecine strife are to be hurled into the national campaign, and at a time when we need all our forces to win we are to have the abrogation instead of the consolidation of the party discipline and duty in that state without whose electoral vote we cannot hope to elect our national ticket. Those Democrats in the country at large who have made themselves accessory to this state of affairs have been taken upon themselves an awful responsibility, and they will need all the grubs that in heaven and earth to pay the bill which the great body of more thoughtful Democrats who do not care a nickel for the brand of internecine strife are to beat the Republicans, and send into the image worshipers and the hot heads when their rash precipitation, and pre-emptive intolerance, have brought upon a great party and noble cause complete and needless shipwreck."

MARSHAL WHITE ILL.

At His Home at Belmont—Nature of His Malady.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

BELTTON, W. Va., June 1.—It may not be generally known, but United States Marshal H. S. White is lying very sick at his home in this village. He attempted to come home via Washington, Friday the 20th of May, from the Charleston term of the U. S. Circuit Court. He found on arrival at Washington that he was too ill to proceed farther and went immediately back to Charleston, where he was confined to his room until the close of court, May 23. He came home from Charleston at the close of the term and has had the constant care of two physicians ever since. His daughters who were visiting in Omaha, were telegraphed for and arrived home this morning. The physicians say it is an acute attack of indigestion with probably a touch of malaria fever. They hope to have him out in a few days, as all his difficulties seem to yield to treatment.

Episcopal Convention.

Special Dispatch to the Intelligencer.

MARTINSBURG, W. Va., June 1.—The fifteenth annual council of the Protestant Episcopal church of West Virginia met in Trinity church today. The sermon was preached by the Rev. Jacob Brittingham, of Wheeling. At 8 o'clock p. m., a service was held touching Sunday school work. A report was read by Rev. Dr. Forest and Messrs. Mason, Ambler and Pitner.

Jersey Queen of the World.

HUNTSVILLE, Ala., June 1.—The phenomenal Jersey cow, Signal's Lily Flag, owned by Moore and Matthews, of this city, has broken the record, having made 1,029 pounds, 13 ounces of butter with four days more to end her year's test. She is now the Jersey queen of the world.

Against Colored Labor.

ADELAIDE, SOUTH AUSTRALIA, June 1.—The Hon. Mr. Playford, colonial prime minister, proposes the holding of an inter-colonial conference with the view of taking combined action against the importation of colored labor into Australia.

Hail Storms Damage Crops.

NEW HORE, Ky., June 1.—A terrible hail storm accompanied by a regular downpour of rain passed over this section yesterday, badly damaging crops and vegetables.

The great reason for the success of Hood's Sarsaparilla is found in its positive merit. It cures where other preparations fail.

BELLAIRE.

All Sorts of Local News and Gossip from the Glass City.

A young man from Beallsville, named Brannen, and a young lady from the same place came to this city Tuesday to marry, but the mother of the young girl spoiled the arrangement by appearing here before the ceremony was performed. She gave the daughter her choice of returning with her or being arrested. She is but sixteen years of age and returned with her mother, but there will be a marriage recorded before many days, as Mrs. Ramsay has decided to remove to Texas and the girl is determined not to go.

"Star" Woodbridge is home from Red Key, Ind., where he closed a deal for a window glass factory. The buildings are all up, having been built by a company that failed before they got a furnace built. They could fail for less money than after building a furnace. Mr. Woodbridge represents a company of Bellaire people who have not yet formally organized, but probably will this week.

Messrs. George W. Yost, James F. Anderson, J. E. Blackburn, Joseph Clements and Martin Cowen, the committee appointed to look after the proper presentation of this section to the commission to locate the new asylum, met yesterday, and made Messrs. Anderson and Cowen a sub-committee with full power and authority to prepare papers and obtain the necessary propositions. The county commissioners may be asked to assist in the matter.

The superintendent and other officers of the Cleveland & Pittsburgh railroad were down early yesterday morning viewing the wreck at the crossing and taking notes as to where the blame rests. It seems to have been distributed from the watch tower to both engineers. That the men in charge of the engines were a little headstrong looks plain to an outsider.

The parents of the young coal miner at McMechen who eloped with the sixteen-year-old girl to Oakland, Md., where they were married, were not to be outdone by the parents of the girl. They, too, are angry over the match, and think their boy might have done better, but the young folks are happy and enjoying life.

The driving park presents the appearance of a lively city avenue in the evenings now. The numerous horses and carriages and buggies of private individuals are all to be seen there.

John Davis is home from Canton, where he succeeded in adding about $15,000 more of street paving contracts to those he recently obtained, making about $75,000 worth all told.

Dr. G. A. Keepers, one of the delegates to the national Republican convention, from Monroe county, will go to Columbus Friday and start from there Saturday for Minneapolis.

About twenty Bellaire families have begun to arrange their affairs for a summer on the camp grounds. Some will go to Moundsville, but more will go to Burr's Mills.

The female base ball team will have an immense crowd out on the commons this afternoon. The young Globes, with which team they play, can put up a stiff game.

Charles Wise has sold his interest in the firm of Ludwig & Wise here to his partner, and will go into business at Wheeling with one of the companies there.

There is no doubt of well grounded fears of a strike among the iron and steel men in this valley. There is a strong probability of its being general. James Linard was called to New Cumberland, W. Va., yesterday by a telegram announcing that his sister, Mrs. Charles E. Campbell, was dying.

Mrs. E. B. Winans and her daughters, Mrs. Alex. Wiley, and Mrs. W. C. Downy, of Washington, D. C., are the guests of Bellaire friends.

The high school commencement at St. Clairsville takes place this evening and a banquet will be given in their hall tomorrow evening.

There is a movement on to close some of the business houses at 6 o'clock in the evening during the summer months.

Messrs. Walter and Alex. C. Darragh and Marshall Thompson, of St. Clairsville, were doing Bellaire yesterday.

MARTIN'S FERRY.

Accidents and Incidents in that Thriving City—Personal and Industrial.

"Sneezer" Coss and Robert Coss were arrested yesterday charged with breaking into John Burkhardt's grocery, corner of Second and Lombard streets. Robert says they are guilty. He says he made two trips into the store and "Sneezer" one, each carrying a basket filled with goods. Marshal Westwood suspected these two men and two others, having seen the four together that night near Burkhardt's, and he swore out affidavits yesterday charging the four with burglary. He found "Sneezer" walking up the Cleveland & Pittsburgh railroad track near the Sherman house, with a string tied to a dog, and arrested him. He talked about the robbery and said he was not guilty. Robert Coss, who is a son of Theo. Coss, was arrested and locked up soon afterward. Latterly he was taken into the council chamber, and after talking with Squire Keller, Mayor Albert Harris and Marshal Samuel Westwood, a short time, plead guilty. He implicated "Sneezer," but would not say whether others helped or not. He said he knew he was guilty and thought the easiest way out the best. He was bound over to court in the sum of $500. "Sneezer" was given a preliminary hearing last night before Squire Keller which was continued until 9 o'clock this morning. "Sneezer" told of his whereabouts that night, says he was drunk and running across Robert and others at Burkhardt's and knowing they would get into trouble if they "monkeyed" any longer wanted them to go on home. He says "Bob" Coss hit him with a can of tomatoes because he would not carry some of the goods away and they started and ran away when Burkhardt began firing his revolver. "Sneezer" told Mayor Keller he would find that he was "not in it." He wanted to hire a lawyer and get several witnesses and have a regular trial. Keller granted the wish and the hearing was set for this morning. "Sneezer" finished a term in the Ohio penitentiary only three or four months ago for safe blowing at Georgetown, Harrison county, since which time he has paid a fine for robbing a gypsy camp. This is the first time Robert Coss has been arrested for burglary.

Next Saturday evening the "Y's" will give a social and entertainment at Commercial Hall. Lunch will be served from 4 o'clock. There will be recitations, duets, solos, etc. No admittance will be charged. The proceeds will be used toward paying for the public drinking fountain to be put up at the corner of Hanover and Fourth streets.

A quiet but exceedingly pretty wedding was celebrated at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. August Krantz on Buckeye street yesterday afternoon. The contracting parties were Mr. William H. Hollenbine and Miss Matilda C. Krantz. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Ulbert, of Wheeling, at 4 o'clock and the attendants were Mr.

A. T. Wilson, of Wheeling, and Miss Tillie Yankey, of Bellaire. The ceremony and congratulations over an elegant wedding dinner was enjoyed.

Mrs. John Cecil was overcome by the heat yesterday while doing household work, and was reported to be in a critical condition last evening.

A roll was broken in plate mill No. 6 at the Etna mill yesterday; also the housing on mill No. 4.

Mrs. J. Y. Patterson and Miss Bee Thomas left yesterday on the Andes on a trip down the river.

Mrs. J. K. Watson, of New York City, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. G. W. Morrison.
